FROM

ADVANTAGE

Virtual Events is the new digital offering from the Advantage Group

We can now deliver your existing event in a virtual world, or supplement an in-person event with a hybrid solution. This not only maintains connectivity and client engagement in an ever-evolving world, but also increases your delegate/client reach.

Our ongoing research and investment in the latest technology together with the conscientious planning and service that is synonymous with the Advantage brand translates to a highly efficient and successful event.

Advantage Virtual Events brings you the expertise and technology to create a solution that is custom-built for your event. Whether you choose live broadcasts from our fully equipped professional studio, or rehearsed sessions from speakers' own homes, we will provide a reliable and credible solution that will exceed your objectives.

Contact us now at hello@advantagegroup.ie to discuss requirements for your next event.
